

“Fairy Tales”

/Hans Christian Andersen/

I like reading fairy tales – there are a lot of magic in them. And no matter how difficult is the life of the characters is, at the end the Good always wins, and there is always happy-end.

I love all Andersen’s stories, but my favourite is about the small ugly duck that turns into a very beautiful swan.

Esin, 8 y/o, TURKEY

“Christmas Collection of Winnie the Pooh”

It is a collection of stories written by various authors about Winnie the Pooh.

My favourite is “Little Christmas” – about Piglet and Firefly. Wind blew a small and strange light in the Piglet’s house in the Christmas Eve. It started shining on the Christmas tree, then on the gingerbread, later on the candle and the bed-head. Piglet realized that there was Firefly in his house only in the morning. This is how they got to know each other.

Marija, 8y/o, LATVIA

“White Fang” /Jack London/

It is a story about a wolf who has a small part of dog in itself. It has to survive through different terrible adventures to the wildness of life among other wolves and to the cruelty of men. In the end White Fang is saved by a good man who teaches the wolf there is also love in life. There is a final happy end.

I think it's a very interesting and meaningful book, I suggest everyone read it because it makes us understand the meaning of life. Everything that faces White Fang makes us understand and learn that despite we cross bad situations, experiences and meet the wrong people in our lives, despite being full of scars like White Fang, fortunately love and sincere behaviour can only pay back us from all the sufferings.

Giulia, 11 y/o, ITALY