

"Winnie the Witch" /V.Thomas, K.Paul/

The story is about the witch Winnie who lives in a completely black house. Everything is black there. The cat Wilbur is completely black, too. The witch can see him, when its eyes are open.

Wilbur becomes invisible, when its eyes are closed, and the witch often trips over it. The witch decided to use some magic and coloured Wilbur in different colours. She decided then to leave Wilbur black and make the house colourful by using magic. I liked that Winnie made her house colourful. I did not like that Winnie tripped over Wilbur.

"Today I do not want to sleep!!!"

/Alexandre Honrado/

This story tells about a child who doesn't want to go to bed.

Late in the evening when she is already tired, the girl, transformed into Morena - Princess of the New Mattress Kingdom, falls asleep.

It is an unforgettable story of Princess Morena, who is afraid of the dark outside and will discover the light that always exists within the stories.
