

“The Balloon Fisherman”

/M^{ra} Antonia García/

Monique and her brother Pascal often stay with their great-aunt Emma. Auntie Emma lives in an old, large house in Paris...

One afternoon the wonders start...

If you are curious to learn more, read the book, you will not regret!

Marina, 8 y/o, SPAIN

“Blue Miracles in the Green Garden”

/Margarita Stāraste/

The main character is dwarf Shorty and his vegetables. He loves his vegetables very very much!

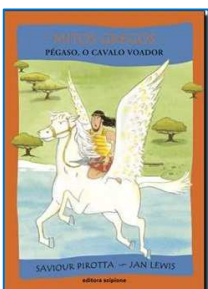

I recommend you to read this book, you will have a lot of fun!

Rihards, 8 y/o, LATVIA

“Pegasus, the Flying Horse” /Savior Pirotta, Jan Lewis/

This book is about a horse, called Pegasus. It was a son of Medusa and Poseidon (the god of the sea). When Medusa was killed by Perseus, the blood of her body fell and mingled with the foam of the sea, from which was born a winged horse (Pegasus). Tame by Athena, he was mounted by the warrior Bellerophon to fight Chimera. When Bellerophon tried to join the Gods, Zeus told Pegasus to make this warrior fall, and he died. Pegasus then joined the Gods, becoming a constellation and remaining in the

I like to read legends and imagine how everything would be if this were true. I like to imagine a horse with wings, son of gods and that eventually turns into a constellation. I think it's fantastic!

Leonor, 8 y/o, PORTUGAL